Statement of Interest

MITCHELL R. ELFERS
CLERK/mn

in pomeroy on contracts #280 (specific performance) after observing that an illegal contract cannot be made the basis of any judicial proceeding, and that no action in law or equity could be maintained upon it, it was said; "this impossibility of enforcement exists, whether valid when made, the illegality has been created by a subsequent statute", however the act to regulate constitutional interstate and foreign commerce is a general law, and contracts are always liable to be more or less affected by general laws, even when in no way referred to, but this incidental effect of the general law is not understood to make it a law impairing the obligation of contracts, it is a necessary effect of the general law of any considerable change in the public laws, if the legislation of the legislature had no power to alter its police laws when contracts would be affected, then the most important and valuable reforms might be precluded by the simple device of entering into contracts for the purpose, no doctrine to that effect would be even plausible, much less sound and tenable, federal government corporational interstate and foreign commerce comes in pursuance of the supreme law of the land, so therefore, is a subsequent statute which the impossibility of enforcement exists, in equity, equity will not allow a subsequent
